

FIRM CHECK ON THE ASSEMBLY

Russian Autocrat Does Not Propose to Place Himself at the Mercy of the People.

POINTS IN THE MANIFESTO

PARLIAMENT NOT A REPRESENTATIVE BODY.

St. Petersburg, March 6.—The full text of an imperial manifesto and laws relative to the national assembly and the reorganized council of the empire, the features of which have already been telegraphed to the Associated Press, throws a flood of light on the purpose of the government to keep a firm check on the new Russian parliament and to exclude certain subjects from consideration by the people's representatives. The constitution of the council of the empire, or upper house of the national assembly, with one-half appointed by the emperor and twenty-six elected from the nobility and clergy, not counting scattering supporters from other classes, seems to insure a conservative if not a pliable majority in the council to block the national assembly should the majority of the latter be in opposition to the crown.

Power Retained.

The government carefully retains the power to promulgate "temporary" laws during the recesses of the parliament, and as the parliament is subject to dissolution by imperial ukase, the government is thus in a position in time of stress to rid itself of an obnoxious legislature and proclaim such laws as it deems necessary to meet the emergency.

A feature of the law which seems effectually to bar its "redeemers" from membership in the national assembly is a provision exacting from persons elected an oath of fidelity to "emperor, autocrat and holy Russia."

Mentioned Only by Number.

The most significant article, however, is one retaining certain provisions of an existing law which is mentioned only by number. This innocuous-sounding provision is far-reaching, placing beyond the jurisdiction of the parliament and consigning to existing commissions of the council of the empire, composed solely of members appointed by the crown, for consideration, the following:

"First—Reports of the minister of finance upon the state of the treasury."
"Second—Charges of malfeasance against members of the council of the empire, ministers, governors general and commanders-in-chief of the land or sea forces."

"Third—The establishment of stock companies with special privileges."
"Fourth—Questions relating to the entailed estates, titles of nobility," etc.

ITCHING SCALP FALLING HAIR

Same Out Constantly—Hair Finally Had to Be Cut to Save Any—Scalp Now in Good Condition and No More Itching—Another Effective

CURE BY THE CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I will gladly give you all the information concerning my case. I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment for a diseased scalp, dandruff, and constant falling of hair. Finally I had to cut my hair to save any at all. Just at that time I read about the Cuticura Remedies. Once every week I shampooed my hair with the Cuticura Soap, and I used the Ointment twice a week. In two months' time my hair was long enough to do up in French twist. That is now five years ago, and I have a lovely head of hair. The length is six inches below my waist line, my scalp is in very good condition, and no more dandruff or itching of the scalp. I used other remedies that were recommended to me as good, but with no results. If you wish to publish any of what I have written you, you are welcome to do so. I am, respectfully, Mrs. W. F. Griess, Clay Center, Neb., Oct. 23, 1905."

YOUTH IS HELD FOR RANSOM

Son of Italian Banker in New York in Possession of Men Who Demand $20,000.

New York, March 6.—Antonio Bonzulli, the 14-year-old son of John Bonzulli, a leading Italian banker, whose place of business at Sixty-third street and First avenue, has been kidnapped and is being held for $20,000 ransom.

The kidnapping occurred last Sunday. The first letter came from the boy, during the afternoon. The boy, who was acting as a clerk, was sent out to purchase $10 worth of stamps, and did not return. Inquiry proved that he made the purchase. Yesterday the first letter came from the boy. Today a second letter and with it a letter from the abductors. The latter was well written in Italian. The boy's first letter said he was held captive in Brooklyn. After asking that the money be paid the note concluded: "Do not advise the police under any circumstances, because if you do my life will leave this world." One of the letters from the boy's captors contained this sentence: "Our scope, Signor, is not vindictiveness. It is the extreme necessity which exists for the possession of the sum indicated. Upon your consentment of the money an at once, without default, your son will be set free and safe."

March 5 is the day set for the payment of the ransom.

Crimp Put in Rascally Firm by Philadelphia Director of Public Works.

Philadelphia, March 6.—One of the first official acts of Thomas L. Hicks, who was today sworn in as director of public works of Philadelphia, succeeding A. Lincoln Acker, who resigned yesterday, was to annul the five contracts held in the name of Daniel J. McNichol for the construction of several parts of the city's filtration system. The reason given by the director for the rescinding of the contracts is "collusion, irregularity and fraud in the procuring and execution of the contracts, whereby the city has been wronged and defrauded in its right and property."

The total value of the canceled contracts is $1,700,000. The McNichol firm, which includes former State Insurance Commissioner Israel W. Durham and State Senator James P. McNichol, has already completed contract work on the filter plant amounting to more than $12,000,000.

The action taken by Director Hicks is the result of a investigation made by the board of engineers of which Major Cassius E. Gillette, chief of the bureau of filtration, is the head.

CITIZENS THREATEN TO LYNCH WYOMING BRUTE

A. A. Frame of Buffalo in Jail Awaiting Trial for a Most Heinous Crime—Quick Work in the Courts Necessary to Prevent Mob Law.

(Special to The Herald.)
Cheyenne, Wyo., March 6.—A. A. Frame, a business man of Buffalo, Wyo., is in jail, threatened with summary justice if he fails into the hands of the indignant populace of that city, for the repeated commission of a heinous crime upon the person of little 11-year-old Jessie Astell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Astell, Frame's employers.

Threatened to Kill Her.
Several days ago the child appeared badly frightened. Her actions aroused the suspicions of her mother, and after repeated questioning the child admitted that Frame had held improper relations with her on numerous occasions, and that he had threatened to kill her if she told of the assaults.

Mr. Astell could hardly be restrained from killing Frame on sight, but finally submitted to the advice of Sheriff Kennedy, last night Mr. and Mrs. Astell purposely went to church, leaving their daughter alone in the house. After their departure Sheriff Kennedy and two deputies entered and arrested themselves near Jessie's bedroom. A few moments later Frame entered, wearing felt slippers, so as to make no noise. He went to Jessie's room and, finding her in bed, made proposals and used language wholly unfit for print.

Brute Taken Into Custody.

Satisfied of Frame's intentions, the officers rushed into the room and arrested him. So indignant was one of the deputies at what he had heard that he had the wretch then and there.

Frame was hustled off to jail and a strong guard placed about the building for the citizens had learned of the matter and were prepared to deal out summary justice. Frame will, it is understood, plead guilty and receive the maximum sentence under the law—fourteen years at hard labor.

If his case is attended to promptly the citizens will let the law take its course, but if there is any delay whatever they will take the law into their own hands.

THAT ONE WEAK SPOT.

Kidney sickness robs the back of all its power and strength. It's hard to life, to stoop or straighten, and even to get up from a chair.

This indescribable weakness of the back, the endless dull aching that goes with it, are never failing symptoms of kidney complaint. A bad back is Nature's signal of distress, a call for help from the kidneys. The aching tells of dangerous congestion that robs the kidneys of their blood-filtering power, or painful, wasting inflammation. There is immediate need for Doan's Kidney Pills, to relieve the pain and heal the kidneys, and to ward off more fatal and painful disorders.

If you are not sure your kidneys are affected, but do suspect it, try the Doan's Kidney Pills for three or four days, and if it then shows a cloudy settling at the bottom, or a sandy sediment, you will know you need Doan's Kidney Pills at once. Neglect of such little troubles as these is what brings on the serious cases of dropsy, diabetes and fatal Bright's disease.

Healthy kidneys keep you well by keeping the blood pure. Sick kidneys keep you sick by failing to purify the blood. This is the cause of many forms of rheumatism, neuralgia and gout; of such nervous troubles as headache, irritability, dizzy spells, depression; of

MIDDLE LIFE

A Time When Women Are Susceptible to Many Dread Diseases—Intelligent Women Prepare for it. Two Relate their Experiences.

The "change of life" is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and the anxiety felt by women as it draws near is not without reason.

Every woman who neglects the care of her health at this time is likely to become active in nervous disease and pain. When her system is in a deranged condition, or she is predisposed to apoplexy, or congestion of any organ, the tendency is at this period likely to become active—and with a host of nervous irritations make life a burden. At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to form and begin their destructive work.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness, inquietude, and dizziness, are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period in life when woman's great change may be expected.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was prepared to meet the needs of woman's system at this trying period of her life. It invigorates and strengthens the female organism and builds up the weakened nervous system.

For special advice regarding this important period women are invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and it will be furnished absolutely free of charge. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely given to sick women.

Read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound did for Mrs. Hyland and Mrs. Hinkle:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:
"I had been suffering with displacement of the organs for years and was passing through the change of life. My abdomen was badly swollen; my stomach was sore; I had dizzy spells, sick headaches, and was very nervous. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail."

Another Woman's Case.
"During change of life words cannot express what I suffered. My physician said I had a cancerous condition of the female organs. One day I read some of the testimonials of women who had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I decided to try it and to write you for advice. Your medicine made me a well woman, and all my bad symptoms soon disappeared."

"I advise every woman at this period of life to take your medicine and write you for advice."—Mrs. Lizzie Hinkle, Salem, Ind. What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Hyland and Mrs. Hinkle it will do for other women at this time of life.

It has conquered pain, restored health, and prolonged life in cases that utterly baffled physicians.
